ANNUAL EXHIBITION AND DISTRIBUTION AT THE ACADEMY OF THE VISITATION. The annual exhibition and closing exercises of the Academy of the Visitation, Monte Maria, on Grace street between Twenty-second and Twenty-third streets, took place yesterday morning at half-past 10 o'clock, in the music ball of that institution, in the presence of a numerous assemblage of relatives and friends of the young lady pupils, and proved particularly interesting and satisfactory. Right Rev. Bishop Gibbons was present, as were also Rev. Fathers Murray and McGurk, of Lynchburg; Rev. Father Benno Hegele, of St. Mary's church, and Rev. Father Doherty, of St. Patrick's Culpeper, $911.50; Cumberland, $724.25; church, Dr. William H. Scott, Alderman Dinwiddie, $931.75; Petersburg city, $1. elect, and Councilman John M. Higgins occupied seats among the reverend gentlemen mentioned.

The exercises commenced by the perform. Franklin, $1,843.50; Frederick, $1,386.50; ance of the "Fanfare Militaire" march, on Giles, $612.75; Gloucester, $878.25; Goochprincipal, took place yesterday morning in the piano, by Misses Bettie Goodwyn and he assembly-room of the school building on Iza Puzey, during which the young misses, $418.50: Greensville, $454.75; Halifax, $2,tastily attired, entered the ball in couples, gracefully courtesied to the Bishop, and Richmond city, $4,521.50; Henry, $1,263; took seats set apart for them. The distribution of premiums was then proceeded with, the Bishop making the awards, while Father McGurk read the names of the successful pupils. During the distribution, the following programme of vocal and instrumental selections was performed, interspersing the reading of names and awarding of premiums most pleasantly:
